

Our Dead

NETERER.—Forest Agusta, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Neetrer was born Aug. 20, 1898, died July 29, 1900, aged 1 year, 11 months and 29 days. Funeral service at Mt. Union church conducted by the writer, brother D. F. Eikenberry assisting.

A. S. MENAUGH.

GRUBB.—At her home in Ashland, Ore., August 11, 1900, Minnora Grubb, aged 28 years, 2 months and 23 days. She was born near Hamilton, Ill. She graduated at Mount Morris College in 1892. While attending school there she united with the Brethren church at Lanark, Ill. Funeral service by congregational pastor at 3 o'clock Sunday 12.

THATCHER.—Sarah Ann Thatcher was born April 25, 1815, passed away peacefully, Aug. 4, 1900, aged 85 years, 8 months and 9 days. Sister Thatcher's husband preceded her to the eternal home by 16 years, 2 months and 19 days. Sister Thatcher was an invalid for some fifteen years of her life and continued as such until the Lord said it is enough; but never a murmur was known to pass her lips in a way that would show that she doubted God's goodness. Her patient and submissive life has been a marvel to all who knew her. She seemed to lose sight of her helpless condition in her great interest for the welfare of others and would say, "never mind me, the Lord will take care of me." She had been a consistent and faithful member of the G. B. church for many years but, when the time came to obey God rather than man in the Amwell church, she took her stand with the Gospel alone people, and there she stood with the faithful until God said come up higher. The church and family and in fact the whole community feel the loss of her presence but we realize that it is her great gain. Funeral discourse by the writer assisted by brother Amos Haines, of Huntington Bible-school, from Jno. 19: 27, "Behold thy mother," subject, "The domestic Sanctum." A large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in the Amwell cemetery, where she now sleeps beside her husband, with him and all who have died in Christ await the tocsin of heaven. May God's blessing rest on all interested.

TROUT.—Mary Y. Trout was born Jan. 9, 1815, died Aug. 15, 1900, aged 85 years, 7 months and 16 days. Sister Trout's membership dated farther back than any other member living in the history of the Amwell church at the time when she cast her lot with the Brethren, shortly after I became pastor of the First Brethren church of N. J. She made application for membership with the Brethren who had been driven from the old roof-tree, known as the Amwell G. B. church. She was truly a good woman living a life consistent with her profession. During the last few weeks of her illness she suffered far more than pen or tongue could describe. Yet she bore up under the pain with such Christian fortitude and held on to God with such faith that did much to strengthen the weak saints who visited her in her last hours. It is a grand sight indeed to me to see a Christian, whose work on earth is done, to die, to hear them cry above the din of conflict going on in the flesh, "I am now ready to be offered, I have fought a good fight, I have kept the faith, Oh death where is thy sting?" The funeral discourse was delivered by the writer from a double text, the first as touching on the life of the departed sister from Mark. 14: 8, "She did what she could." The second was from Job 17: 38, "has the gates of death been opened to you?" A large audience was present and followed the remains to their last resting place. May God's choicest blessings rest on the mourning friends who were many.
